Dear Sir:

In response to the January 3, 2011, election of species requirement, applicant hereby elects the additive heparin. The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("PTO") required both the name and structure of the elected additive species in the election of species requirement; however, applicants believe reciting the structure of heparin is unnecessary since the structure is not specified in the present application.

Applicant submits that pending claims 1-23, 25-28, 30, and 32-34 are readable on the elected species.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: July 1, 2011
